Section B. Applicants Declaration

- I undertake to abide by the Constitution and Rules of the Institute, and to promote the aims and objectives of the Institute.
- I understand that being a member of the IWMEswatini is a long-term commitment with an annual subscription fee due in July each year, which is subject to an annual increase.
- I acknowledge that if I do not notify the IWMEswatini of my withdrawal from the IWMEswatini membership by end September, that I will be accountable for the membership fees due for that year. Should the organisation be deleted due to un-paid fees and wish to re-apply at a later stage we will still be liable for the outstanding fees, joining fee and current annual fee.
- As part of the membership benefits, we agree to receive email and sms communications from the IWMEswatini.

Please note that we will never share your contact information with third parties.

I accept the above terms and conditions and hereby apply for membership (tick the box).

Please note that we will never share your contact information with third parties.

Code of Ethics

This Code of Ethics shall be binding upon all members of the Institute of Waste Management of Eswatini (IWMEswatini) and any breach thereof shall be dealt with by an ad hoc disciplinary committee constituted from time to time by the Council of the Institute.

All members shall:

1. Uphold the reputation of the Institute and not bring the Institute into disrepute.
2. Abide by the Constitution, Policies and By-laws of the Institute.
3. Comply with all relevant legislation pertaining to waste management and the environment.
4. Conduct themselves in an honourable and ethical manner and shall, so far as possible, always have full regard to the interests of the public and the environment. Furthermore, their conduct shall at all times be conducive to maintaining the good reputation of the waste management industry.
5. Maintain their knowledge and skills at levels consistent with development in technology, legislation and management.
6. Apply due skill, care and diligence in conducting their business and / or rendering services and only accept or undertake work for which they possess, or can acquire and manage with responsibility, the necessary professional competence and organisation.
7. Obtain any contract, service or sale only through legally acceptable business practices.
8. Not intentionally injure the professional reputation of another member.

Individual Application for Membership

9. Advertise their services in an honest manner, which is not derogatory to the dignity or standing of the industry.
10. Only issue statements on behalf of the Institute, if specifically authorised by the official Institute spokesperson.
11. While occupying a position of Office in the Institute, shall not use their position to promote their own business interests.

This serves to confirm that we have read and understand the above and agree to abide by the Code of Ethics as set out by the Institute of Waste Management of Eswatini.
